Summary of Differences Between NextGen@ICANN and Fellowship Programs

	NextGen@ICANN Program	Fellowship Program
Number of program participants per meeting	15	45
Age	18-30	21+
Region	Regional - region of the ICANN Meeting	Global
Target Audiences	University students	Professionals from underserved and underrepresented communities
Purpose	1. Capacity development 2. Raise awareness of ICANN within and across universities	Capacity development
Goals	Short-term: 1. Introduction to ICANN and its ecosystem 2. Continue to follow ICANN's work (eg. regional engagement opportunities) 3. Raise awareness of ICANN at universities (eg. research, etc.) Mid and Long-term: 1. Participation at ICANN post studies	Participation in ICANN's multistakeholder model

	NextGen@ICANN Program	Fellowship Program
KPIs	Short-term: • Number of participants • Number of ICANN Learn courses completed • Number of awareness raising activities at universities • Number of subscribers to ICANN SO/AC/SG/C mailing lists • Number of ICANN working group observers or participants • Number of participants at regional events Mid and Long-term: • Number affiliated with ICANN community group • Number of participants in regional events • Number of contributors to public comments • Number of contributors to mailing list discussions • Number of participants in PDPs or cross-community activities • Number of penholders or co-rapporteurs on policy reports and documents • Number elected to a position within the ICANN community • Number of chairs or co-chairs of groups or subgroups	• Number of program participants • Number affiliated with ICANN community group • Number of participants in regional events • Number of contributors to public comments • Number of contributors to mailing list discussions • Number of participants in PDPs or cross-community activities • Number of pen holders or co-rapporteurs on policy reports and documents • Number elected to a position within the ICANN community • Number of chairs or co-chairs of groups or subgroups